From Our ENP Officer:

In 1143:

The burglary on Goodwin was of UNLOCKED house, lap top taken.

The theft on Goodwin probably didn't happen in VP. Resident got letter from Toll way Authority about not paying tolls over two months. Resident then i

In 1144:

The burglary on Vickery was of items from the house where victim was in process of moving. Might have been locked, might not.

In 1160:

The robbery on Miller was at gun point, suspects followed victim into garage as he pulled his car in. Suspect arrested later on similar offense.

The burglary on Richard was of the garage, tools taken.

The burglary on Vickery was of one flat screen TV, gently taken off the wall with no damage. The victim believes it was a service provider.

The thefts that were BMV's are denoted by the usual "auto parts", "mcycle/minibike" reference.

noted front plate missing.
